Ten seconds may be all she has left ... Kate Edison witnesses her father's death and, in order to keep his memory alive, decides to follow in his footsteps by joining the CIA. She molds herself into becoming exactly what the CIA is looking for---and captures their interest, both personally and professionally. But before she can finish the CIA process, Kate is offered a position as an espionage agent in another highly secretive government agency, which she accepts. While completing her agency training, Kate is catapulted into a shadowy world where wealth and power are the ultimate goal, and those in charge will stop at nothing to get it. While on the job, Kate uncovers secrets that, if revealed, would cost her life, but if kept, could bring down a nation. Isolated and unsure of who to trust, she brings in a fellow agent, but pulling him into the web of conspiracy and lies puts a target on both their backs - and it will take every skill they've ever learned as agents to stay alive long enough to stop the enemy no one else can see.

Just Ten Seconds Jeannine Colette 2019-10-19

Just Ten Seconds That's all it took for my life to change forever. I left my posh life in Manhattan and escaped to the Hudson Valley in hopes of a fresh start. It wasn't until I happened upon a bereavement group when I finally found a place I felt understood. I told them my husband was dead when, really, I was the one who had died inside. It was also where I saw the smoldering gaze of Dean Delgado, the single father whom I'd helped just days before. Just Ten Seconds That's all he wishes he had with his late wife. Despite Dean's widowed status, he has a robust thirst for life. He's a protector and a giver. A man who fixes things with his hands, is devoted to his child, and wants to spend his days with me. I try to avoid him, knowing a woman with my past has no business being in this man's life. With every run-in, he makes me laugh. With every touch, he ignites me. And with every second, he makes me feel like myself again. Just Ten Seconds That's all it took for me to fall in love with Dean Delgado. I'm in too deep and my secrets are about to be exposed. I only hope he can forgive me for the lies I never meant to tell.

Ten-second Tongue Twisters Mike Artell 2006

More sassy than Sally sells seashells, more peculiar than Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers, these twisters will either loosen your tongue or get you all tangled up and laughing. Either way, they're pure entertainment, and a great way to kick-start a kids' party. Some of the twisters might look easy at first. But when you multiply them and speed up, suddenly you're tripping over the words, reversing letters, and turning mush-mouthed. So grab the clock and find out just how many times you can repeat this in ten seconds: The bad brats broke the bats or Fresh fried fish filets, fresher fried fish filets, freshest fried fish filets. It's an irresistible challenge.

Ten Seconds Inside a Tornado Ed Frederick

2009 At 3:10 A.M. on 2 February 2009 (Groundhog Day), a tornado with circular winds exceeding 160 mph, moving toward the east-northeast, cut a devastating path across the entire width (3.4 miles) of the largest retirement center in the world, The Villages in Central Florida. Actually, the tornado formed at 3:08 A.M. one mile north of the town of Wildwood, two miles west of The Villages. There were no fatalities until after the tornado exited The Villages. There was not one, but a progression of three tornadoes. After exiting The Villages at 3:15 A.M., the first tornado traveled 10 miles farther, resulting in 9 fatalities before lifting at 3:25 A.M. east of Lady Lake. The second tornado formed 12 miles from the end of the first tornado at 3:37 A.M. and continued along a straight line across Florida for 26 miles, passing through Paisley and DeLand. It then lifted east of Interstate 4 at 4:10 A.M. There were 12 fatalities in this tornado with peak winds of 165 mph. The third tornado formed 12 miles from the end of the second tornado at 4:22 A.M. just east of Interstate 95 and continued in the same direction across Florida for 3 miles, ending at 4:25 A.M. at the intracoastal waterway in New Smyrna Beach. There were no fatalities in this tornado as the peak winds reduced to about 100 mph. With a total of 21 fatalities, this was the second deadliest outbreak of tornadoes in Florida's history, second only to the 42 deaths from an outbreak of seven tornadoes, also late at night, occurring in February 22-23, 1998.

Ten Seconds to Free Fall L A Clayton

2020-10-09 The world is at a tipping point . . . and every second counts. Kate and her CIA team are on a mission to stop the AGI's plan to overthrow the government and achieve a New World Order. But the AGI is always one step ahead of them, clearing the way to win their shadowy war. Kate is tangled in a dangerous web that pulls her deeper into a labyrinth of lies and betrayal no matter what move she makes. The clock is counting down to zero and she's in the fight of her life - and the freedom of the world is at stake. Jake's assignment is to test the loyalties of a high-ranking AGI operative who may prove to be a huge advantage if they can sway him. But the operation goes sideways when an unexpected source from Jake's past turns up, and in this cat-and-mouse game old ghosts can become new enemies. Jake must decide who he can trust to help him ensure that AGI's New World Order won't become reality. Making his stand, he'll stop at nothing to end AGI. But everything can change in the blink of an eye . . .

Give Me Ten Seconds John Sergeant 2014 John Sergeant's acclaimed memoir takes us from his somewhat eccentric childhood to his thirty years' service with the BBC. Memorably handbagged by Margaret Thatcher on the steps of the Paris Embassy as she lost the leadership contest, and the man to whom Ron Davis confessed his midnight perambulations on Clapham Common, Sergeant has been the man on the spot in most of the major news stories of the last twenty years. His mordant wit, keen sense of the absurd and acute powers of analysis pervade the book and his understanding of the labyrinthine workings of Westminster - and of the corridors of Broadcasting House - is second to none.

Ten Seconds to Total Exposure L A Clayton 2020-06-02 How much does Big Brother really know about you? Kate Edison's first mission as part of a covert CIA group is to track down Nigel Brown-a man who Kate's late father had given the key to taking down the Alternate Government Initiative. But when she finally finds him, he's dead and they find that the illness that killed him was made specifically for his DNA. On deeper investigation, Kate gathers intel that the AGI is acquiring the capability to make designer illnesses based on an individual's genetic code--and it's a game-changer. Time is running out, and Kate may be the only one who can stop the AGI's plans to control the population in ways that no one could see coming. But the AGI has eyes everywhere, and they have all the information they need on Kate. The ultimate showdown will be fought on a razor thin line. Will Kate have enough experience and soul-deep grit to survive? TEN SECONDS TO TOTAL EXPOSURE is the much anticipated sequel to the critically acclaimed TEN SECONDS TO DEAD by author L.A. Clayton!

Two Minutes to Live-Ten Seconds to Die Bill

Kinkade 2012-03 When Toby Roberts told his family and his friends he was forgoing a future as a professional soccer player to go to college and become a policeman they thought he was crazy. By the end of his first year in uniform he had killed one man, shot and wounded another and seemed to be in hot water with his brass and the city politicians. Then he discovered another, darker side of police work that had its own unique methods of dealing with criminals. Determined to pursue his career in law enforcement, he plunged deeper into the system, discovering the corruption that crept into the system from unexpected sources. Eventually Toby found that he had to take the law into his own hands and accept unconventional help to protect the innocent and punish the guilty. Ten Seconds from the Sun Russell Celyn Jones 2006-05-04 Ray Greenland is an exemplary family man and Thames River pilot who can navigate people safely in the here and now, while his wife Lily, in her capacity as a director of a dating agency, arranges their happy futures. But what none of those around him know, including Lily and their children, is that Ray's life is not his own; he is mortgaged to a past that might, at any time, come to claim him back. When Ray was twelve he did something so wrong he must live under a false identity for the rest of his life. He tries to atone by loving his family, while protecting them against the pernicious truth; telling stories from other people's happier lives and claiming them as his own. The only safe place for him is on the lower reaches of the Thames. But it's on land where Ray's past resurfaces and a lifetime of caution may not be enough to save him. TEN SECONDS FROM THE SUN has the pace and hallmark of a classic tragedy, reaching back into the mythology of childhood and revealing it as an avenging nemesis.

Ten Seconds In-Between Doug Hoekstra 2021-02-22 Ten Seconds In-Between is a collection about connection. There's something elusive yet immediate about the characters in these tales; as a line in "Performance Art," goes, "You remember reading somewhere that psychologists say when people meet, they decide within 7 and 17 seconds whether or not they will like each other. You wonder about the 10 seconds in between." The pieces herein range from flash to extended, mirroring ephemeral transactions and relationships; as with life, the hope is that the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. This book is dedicated to everyone living in and for those ten seconds, the journey we share. (Doug Hoekstra 2021)

Ten Seconds Theodore William Goodrich
2013-07 What happens when the life as you know suddenly comes to an unexpected and an abrupt halt; stopping you dead in your tracks? When something that takes only 10 seconds can forever change every aspect of your entire life. What do you do when memories that you have of your life, your family, friends, and your childhood are snatched from you and are completely wiped away? All in just 10 seconds. It could happen at any age, at anytime, anywhere, and at any place. This is an Amazing True Life Story of one young man who had experienced such a tragedy. This is the journey of Ted Goodrich; when at the age of 23 had the unthinkable and the unimaginable happen to him. A devastating injury to his head and to his brain..... where he was left with no brain function, had died four separate times and had slipped into a very deep coma. It had literally taken this young man back in time, to the equivalent age of five years old. This is a story of Faith, Courage, Love and Family. A story of Miracles, Never Give Up Attitude and Trust. Do you believe in fate? Do you have faith, and believe there is a God in Heaven? Do you believe in Miracles? By sharing my story with you, my goal is to hopefully reassure you that the answer to these three questions is YES..... and to possibly give hope to individuals and their families who have had similar experiences. As for a fourth question..... When you pray or talk to someone that is in a coma - Do you believe they can really hear you, and it can actually make a difference? Well..... YES WE CAN..... AND YES IT DOES

Ten Seconds Lucian Lupescu 2018-11-08 The ten loosely interconnected stories in this collection (mostly flash fiction) focus on small moments of everyday life.

Take 10 Kevin L. Barclay 2018-07-27 Remember when you were perhaps just a little overheated, your mom used to say, "Count to 10"? Well, that's what we might all need, with the world seeming to spin as fast as it is now and with all the different things going on. Maybe we just need to Take 10--maybe take 10 breaths, 10 steps. We are 10 seconds away from making a better decision! Many people have said that a situation could have turned out differently had they paused and given it more thought. This book will help you continue on the interesting journey you have already begun. This is a guide to help you understand that you already have the tools inside you to do what you need to take care of yourself. You already have the basis of understanding. You already have everything you need at your fingertips. You don't have to recite any mantras or anything; you just have to remember to take it easier.

The First Ten Seconds Kat Voss 2022-11-23 THE FIRST 10 SECONDS addresses the initial reaction of a "coming out" conversation. The intention of THE FIRST 10 SECONDS is to help give some notice for that conversation before it happens. It's a quick read to hand off to someone you plan to talk with about your identity or a great book to grab if you think that someone in your life may be transgender and you want to understand it better. Regardless of a person's morals, values and beliefs, THE FIRST 10 SECONDS includes many reasons for acceptance, support and being an advocate and loyal supporter for someone you care about. THE FIRST 10 SECONDS explains gender identity and gender expression in terms that anyone new to LGBTQ+ can understand. This is a great basic book for anyone who wants to know more about the transgender community and the varied processes of "transitioning."

A Lifetime of Training for Just Ten Seconds

Richard Witt 2012-05-10 'I hope the Romanian doesn't get through, because I can't pronounce her bloody name.' Allegedly from David Coleman, British radio and TV commentator, at one of his many Olympic coverages, when he thought he was off air. A Lifetime of Training for Just 10 Seconds is a collection of quotations from Olympic athletes, eyewitnesses and commentators through the ages, whether written, broadcast, overheard or misreported. They are inspiring, devastating - often hilarious - and a fascinating insight into the Games, the people who watch and compete in them, and those labouring and slithering behind the scenes. The notes following the quotes give a potted history of the Games and its cast of characters. 'These are the Olympics; you die before you quit.' The great American discus thrower, Al Oerter, winner of four successive gold medals (1956-1968). For the third of these in Tokyo, he competed despite excruciating pain from a torn rib cartilage, strapped up and iced.

#onechoice Becky Savage 2021-12-16 A gripping story of two brothers who lost their lives on the same night. It was a night we thought we'd never forget. It was graduation and, like most teens, we were looking forward to celebrating with our friends. We knew it was the end of one chapter and the beginning of another. Some of us were heading off to college. Others were moving away. We had made some amazing friends and even better memories. Sitting around reminiscing and laughing, someone pulled out a bottle of pills. Oxy. In a brief moment, we made One Choice that we can never take back. How were we to know this would be our last night? When you're a teenager you don't think that One Choice can end it all. But it can. We are here to tell you that your choice matters. Here is our story.

The 10-Second Rule Clare De Graaf

2013-02-05 Learn how to answer God's call to action with this "wonderful, inspirational book that reinforces how one simple gesture, one small act of kindness, can make an enormous difference" (Laura Schroff, New York Times bestselling author of An Invisible Thread).

FINDING YOUR WAY BACK TO FAITH Do you sometimes feel as if your faith has gone flat? Does your spiritual life feel listless and boring? Perhaps you've unconsciously drifted toward what Clare De Graaf calls beige Christianity. You go to church, attend a Bible study, and even volunteer, but there's no spark anymore—no joy in your spiritual walk. You may not understand what is happening to your faith, but you do know that you long for something more. If you want to break out of this spiritual gerbil cage and begin living the adventure Jesus intends for you, the place to begin again is living by The 10-Second Rule: Just do the next thing you're reasonably certain Jesus wants you to do (and do it within the next ten seconds before you change your mind!). The Rule is like a spiritual defibrillator! Just a few chapters in, you'll begin to experience the excitement of making yourself available to God 24-7, and impacting the lives of everyone around you, even total strangers. All over the world, Christians just like you are returning to the simple faith of Jesus and living by the 10-Second Rule. In living by the Rule, you'll rediscover the revolutionary power of simple obedience as Jesus taught it, the early church lived it, and before religious Christianity tamed it. Finally, a rule you'll love keeping!

Ten Seconds to Repentance Keith Lewis

2019-03-05 Nathan Maxwell was just an ordinary man endowed with an extraordinary gift that could only be used to free God's people from the demon of pride. Evil has penetrated and engulfed citizens in the boxing industry, and as a result, their freedom of choice is no longer their free will. People are dying not having a choice beforehand to repent, leaving the road to the underworld their definite end. Mathew Maxwell was called, sunk in the boxing world to tear down and destroy the demon of pride. Red, the leader of the strongholds, used the sport to capture the fighters, and Mathew "The Punisher" Maxwell was used in the sport to free them. Being led by the supernatural, those confronted was only given ten seconds to repentance.

World Elif Shafak 2019-09-24 Shortlisted for the 2019 Booker Prize Named a Best Book of the Year by Bookpage, NPR, Washington Post, and The Economist A moving novel on the power of friendship in our darkest times, from internationally renowned writer and speaker Elif Shafak. In the pulsating moments after she has been murdered and left in a dumpster outside Istanbul, Tequila Leila enters a state of heightened awareness. Her heart has stopped beating but her brain is still active-for 10 minutes 38 seconds. While the Turkish sun rises and her friends sleep soundly nearby, she remembers her life-and the lives of others, outcasts like her. Tequila Leila's memories bring us back to her childhood in the provinces, a highly oppressive milieu with religion and traditions, shaped by a polygamous family with two mothers and an increasingly authoritarian father. Escaping to Istanbul, Leila makes her way into the sordid industry of sex trafficking, finding a home in the city's historic Street of Brothels. This is a dark, violent world, but Leila is tough and open to beauty, light, and the essential bonds of friendship. In Tequila Leila's death, the secrets and wonders of modern Istanbul come to life, painted vividly by the captivating tales of how Leila came to know and be loved by her friends. As her epic journey to the afterlife comes to an end, it is her chosen family who brings her story to a buoyant and breathtaking conclusion.

Ten Seconds to Die Marshall Mattingly

2023-04-12 Since the gold rush ended, folks in Dahlonega, Georgia have been living just above the poverty level. When a billionaire builds a pharmaceutical plant in town, life returns to normal again. When a hiker is found dead at the base of a cliff on the Appalachian trail, the cause of death quickly changes from accident to murder. A deputy sheriff and a reporter team up to uncover clues and solve the case... until their lives are put in danger. Before long, everyone who gets involved with the case ends up arrested, murdered, or on the run. The coroner, the mechanic, and two witnesses are all killed after they uncover evidence of the hiker's murder - and the deputy sheriff is framed as their killer. All signs point to the pharmaceutical plant's research facility, but will the deputy be able to prove his innocence and catch the killer?
